El Dia de Brasil is an annual festival that takes place in Barcelona where you can see true Brazilian performances on stage. You can enjoy the true Brazilian culture during this on day event eating Brazilian food, drinking Caipirinhas and meet true Brazilian people.

This three years old event aims at supporting the international image of Brazil as a touristic attraction and also to allow more business exchange. It also promotes the social cohesion and the integration of the Brazilian population in Barcelona.

This is a free event organized by the Diversia Group, created in 2006 that exclusively aims at promoting cultural diversity in Spain and develop project that will help the Brazilian community to integrate within the Spanish population.
