Atos Origin and CASSIS International join forces to deploy mobile NFC services in Europe

February 26th, 2011

Complete solutions enable service providers to deploy secure contactless applications on mobile phones

Paris - Atos Worldline, which brings together Atos Origin's expertise in hi-tech transactional services, announces its partnership with CASSIS International, one of the key suppliers of NFC and TSM solutions. The aim of this agreement is to implement complete solutions enabling service providers - banks, public transport operators, telecoms operators, distributors, etc. - to deploy innovative and secure contactless applications (payments, transport season tickets, loyalty cards, authentication, etc.). This alliance of complementary expertise will aid the deployment of...
